THE WATERGATE HEARINGS THE IMPEACHMENT HEARINGS

SUMMER OF JUDGMENT is . . .

- A unique learning opportunity for students too young to understand the meaning of the Watergate era.
- A valuable aid in teaching about the separation of powers and how our institutions respond in a time of crisis.
- Two critically acclaimed programs originally aired on PBS containing highlights of the 1973 Senate Watergate Hearings and the 1974 House Judiciary Committee Impeachment Hearings with:

John Dean
John Ehrlichman John Mitchell
H. R. Haldeman Senator Sam Ervin
Representative Peter Rodino Representative Barbara Jordan

SUMMER OF JUDGMENT: THE WATERGATE HEARINGS

" . . . the single most watchable, compelling documentary of the year . . . of inestimable value in promoting the cause of an informed citizenry."
—John Corry, New York Times

SUMMER OF JUDGMENT . . . THE IMPEACHMENT HEARINGS

" . . . this superb condensation of the impeachment hearings proves that, in the right hands, television can be an enormous aid in putting recent complex events into long-range historical perspective."
—Arthur Unger, Christian Science Monitor

Both programs—Summer of Judgment: The Watergate Hearings and Summer of Judgment: The Impeachment Hearings are now available on cassette with Faculty Guide. For more information contact:
